The Ekamai International School Kindergarten Department conducted the 12th graduation ceremony on June 7, 2011. What a festive morning it was as 40 students from K3A and K3B marched down the aisle to receive their diploma from Mrs. Rajdeep Takeuchi, the new EIS Director.

After the marching, the kindergartners sang a Chinese song and an English song. Keynote speaker Chaplain Jonathan Montes challenged the students to be good, respectful and studious as they moved on to grade 1.

Parents and grandparents saw the deeper meaning of this auspicious occasion. One father said “This is an important milestone in the lives of the children.” “I am happy that my son has had a good early education experience,” commented a mother, “it will pave his way for a scholastic success.”

Mrs. Deena Das, Section Leader of the Kindergarten Department, said, “The students were very adorable; they realized that they are growing up and becoming ‘big kids’. I want to wish them success as they continue on in their studies.”

On May 25, 2011, the Music Department organized a performance by the Kindergarten Department with the theme “It’s a Jungle Out There!” The children, dressed attractively in colorful costumes, performed on a stage decorated brilliantly by Mr. Welmer Lozada.

A skit by Harold Heys, Leks Kian Claro and Apiwat Suvichagorn from 2C about King Leo looking for the ‘key to happiness’ set the stage for the various musical and dance performances by the various kindergarten classes.

“I was so fascinated to witness the fine performances of our children,” exclaimed one mother. “It was a thrilling moment.”

“These children are the focus of our daily lives,” said another proud parent. “We enjoy being part of their school life.”

Summer Musical Concert Earns Strong Praise

By Mrs. Virnie B. Zulueta, Head of Music Department

The EIS Music Department organized a ‘Summer Musical Concert’ on May 25, 2011 with the theme ‘The Good News is Love!’ The program, a musical dramatization of the life of Jesus, had the EIS choir and band carrying much of the weight, but individual vocal and instrumental performances added even more richness.

“We spent a long time preparing for the drama,” said Ashootosh Asnani 6A. “I also appreciate the hard work of Mrs. Joanne Laude in conducting the choir as they sang ‘Rockin’ the Boat, Good News, and Great Commandments accompanied by the violin and keyboard ensemble.

Jaypat Piamjariyakul 6A, one of the actors also appreciates the musical numbers played by the band conducted by Mr. Weerajak Wong-ngoeng and said “They helped us to put our feelings into the play.”

“I felt like I was closer to God when I was doing the performance,” said another performer. “I wish I could have been there personally to witness the miracle of Jesus when He asked the disciples to throw the net into the water and caught many fish.”

The concert also featured instrumental performances by students from Grades 3-8.

“I tend to approach this kind of concert with cynical attitude,” commented one mother. “Fortunately teachers taught students to appreciate music free of non-sense lyrics. They are very meaningful.”

A mother should have the last word. “I was very impressed to hear Jim Carado 2B sang the inspiring prayer song ‘Our Father Which Art in Heaven.’ It got even more emotional when I heard the arousing song ‘Tell the World’ by Natwara Manitsirisuk 3A, Samantha Jawjong K2B, and Dachathorn Tharacheewin 3A. I want to express my appreciation to the Music Teachers for teaching our children to sing songs that are uplifting to our souls.”

EIS Bible Camp 2011 Forges Spiritual Bonds

EIS students were enjoying the new bond of fellowship at the camp.

By Mr. Apirak Dejwinya, Chaplain

The Chaplain Department of EIS, in collaboration with the Grace Adventist Center, organized a Bible Camp from Friday, 29 April 2011 to Sunday, May 1, 2011 at the Fountain Tree Resort in Khaw Yai. Fun it was, but the main objective was to provide a Christ centered retreat where young people could encounter Jesus personally.

Activities included worship services as well as leadership training and fellowship. In addition to delivering the gospel message of repentance, faith, grace, hope and forgiveness, the camp also provided Biblical answers to life's issues and taught the truth of God's word. Each day Chaplain Jonathan Montes and Chaplain Apirak Dejwinya (Joe) explored a theme entitled "Jesus I Never Knew."

While students certainly enjoyed the tranquility of the surrounding, they built friendships through activities linked to hiking, paint balls, ATV, go-carts, water challenges and super balls.

"The camp not only drew me nearer to God," said one student, "but it also helped me become a more confident teenager. Yes, I think this is the community where I belong!"

"The camp was great," said another participant. "God was with us and we had lots of fun. Memories will be with me for a long time."

Star Quest Visits Elderly

By Ornpapar Limkijcharoen, 9D

On April 28, 2011, Ekamai International School Care Quest Club, a school-based community service organization, visited the Bangkhae Home for the Elderly.

Not only do such trips reach out to those needing human contact, they also give our students a sense of life in the world beyond school.

Every year, members raise funds through donations or garage sales to aid orphanages and other community charitable groups. Care Quest Club help comes in many forms: clothes, food, toys, or projects aimed at cleaning or beautification (planting trees is a good example).

Club members mixed freely with the Bangkhae Home elderlies who quickly called our respectful students their ‘grandchildren.’ Students also staged a musical show and invited the elders to join them in the ‘Rum Wong,’ a Thai traditional folk dance. Members of the club also sat with elders to hear the stories of their lives.

The elderly in the Home are watching attentively to the musical performances by the members of the Care Quest.

“I am amazed how friendly and knowledgeable they are,” commented Prapada Chulapamornsri 8B. “Our visit had brought not only cheers into their lives but also joys into our lives. Our visit has been very meaningful and it brought tears to some of them.”

Another member, looking at the radiant faces around her, remembered a Mark Twain quote. “The best way to cheer up yourself is to try to cheer up someone else.”

On May 14, 2011 the Friend to Friend Club went for a field trip to Father Ray Children's Home in Pattaya where more than 60 children, orphans, neglected children and abused teenagers find refuge. The field trip was organized to bring awareness into the minds of our students to the needs of others in our society.

Jane Chongsawat 11D said, "I am happy to be able to help the people who are less fortunate." Another student agreed, "Yes, we work hard in collecting donations from other students, parents and teachers and we were able to gather a lot of stationery, school socks, and anything that is needed for schooling and cash totaling Baht 14, 844.-."

At the orphanage, club members were able to play games with the children from the Home, some were as young as four years but others were already teenagers.

The Director of the Home was delighted with our visit. "Most of the children here come from unfortunate circumstances, she said, "but we give them education and the ability to hold their heads high and be equal in society."

Pawarisa Surajaras 11B is presenting the cash of Baht 14,844.- and other gifts to the Home.

Suratsawadee Youngpatta 11E said, "The field trip really had an impact on us; it brought awareness of the needs in the communities. We cannot change what has happened to the children's past, but we can provide the best possible care for them."

Pawarisa Surajaras 11B, who has visited other homes before said, "Each child is an individual; they have their own needs and I am glad we can provide something to help them grow into adulthood."

Thanks to generous donations from students, parents, teachers and friends, Ekamai International School was able to raise Baht 219,000.- for the tsunami disaster relief fund. The donation was presented to officials of the Japanese Embassy to Thailand on June 6, 2011. Again, EIS would like to thank parents, students, faculty and staff for their support.

On April 20, 2011 a team of EIS students from grades 6-12 participated in a science competition hosted by Ramkhamhaeng Advent International School (RAIS). The team, led by Mr. Felix Nada, Head of the Science Department, won the first prize for the middle school section and two second place prizes for high school. EIS was the only school to win an award in both sections. Participating schools were RAIS, EIS, Modern International School, Trinity International School and Bangkok Adventist International School.

Napat Scores Perfect SAT Again!

Napat Sanguansin, our new Student Council President obtained a perfect score on his SAT Chemistry test administered in June 2011. The test ranged from general concepts to laboratory experiments. In addition to the traditional multiple choice questions, the test also had a true/false section. Napat has already perfected the SAT Physics in May 2011.

For future test takers, Napat recommends studying from a book dedicated to SAT Chemistry after they have taken the General Chemistry class offered by the school. When taking the practice tests, they should note down all their mistakes and compile the list and study only from it the day before the test. Since Chemistry is a subject relying heavily on memorization, doing this will help prioritize what need to be memorized.

Seniors shed tears when Ekasit Kunadirekwong made an emotional speech of appreciation to parents. “Our lives are like a sand clock,” he said. “The young always think their clock is full, but parents know sand runs very fast. Let us thank them now for their love, support and sacrifice.”

When the seniors marched out of the hall, they did so as the ‘Graduates of 2011.’

Academic Recognition Day Boosts Student Ambitions

By Mr. Reynold Gadaun, Teacher 3A

On May 24 & 30, 2011, EIS Elementary and Middle School Sections conducted their Academic Recognition Day for students who had achieved high academic performance. Gold medals were awarded to students who received GPAs of 3.7 and above, and silver medals were presented to those who received GPAs of 3.30 to 3.69.

Radiant faces were everywhere, not only from honored students, but also from the parents, teachers and classmates. As some parents held onto their children's hands, tears of joy rolled down their cheeks as each child was called to receive his or her medal and certificate.

Later, the parents were more thrilled as their children presented flowers as tokens of thankfulness. Teachers too shared in this happy moment. One parent said, "This yearly event really motivated many students to achieve higher goals."

"I must at least maintain my present GPA in order to be an honor student again next school year," said Dachathorn Tharacheewin (3A).

The then EIS Director Dr. Surapee Sorajakool praised the honored students for their hard work. She also challenged the less academic peers to strive harder in order to be included on the honor roll.

Indeed, it was a great and joyful day that many students and parents look forward to annually.
