Job Overview:

The Grade 5 Writing Teacher is responsible for teaching writing skills, fostering creativity, and helping students develop strong communication abilities. As a Homeroom Teacher, this role also provides guidance, monitors student well-being, and supports a positive classroom environment. Additionally, the teacher assists with the FFWD/Support program to provide targeted academic support for students who need additional assistance.

Responsible to: Elementary Principal

Main Duties:

Writing Teacher Responsibilities:

- Plan and deliver engaging writing lessons that develop students' grammar, vocabulary, and composition skills.
- Teach different forms of writing, including narrative, descriptive, persuasive, and expository.
- Guide students through the writing process, from brainstorming to final drafts.
- Provide constructive feedback to improve student writing skills.
- Incorporate reading and literary analysis to enhance writing comprehension.
- Assess student progress through assignments, projects, and tests.
- Integrate technology and interactive activities to support learning.

Homeroom Teacher Responsibilities:

- Serve as the primary point of contact for students and parents regarding academic and personal development.
- Conduct daily check-ins and ensure a supportive classroom environment.
- Monitor student behavior, attendance, and overall well-being.
- Foster character development and social-emotional learning.
- Communicate regularly with parents and school staff about student progress and concerns.
- Organize and participate in school events, assemblies, and activities.
- Perform other duties as assigned by the administration.

FFWD/Support Responsibilities:

- Provide targeted academic support by adapting lessons, tracking progress, implementing intervention plans, and collaborating with students, parents, and staff to meet diverse learning needs.

Qualifications:

- Seventh-day Adventist church member in good standing.
- Bachelor's degree in Education, English, or a related field.
- Teaching certification or equivalent qualification.
- Experience in teaching writing at the elementary level is preferred.
- Experience in academic support or intervention programs is an advantage.
- Strong classroom management and student engagement skills.
