JOB VACANCY

Position Title: Middle School Writing Teacher
Type of Appointment: One-year contract with the possibility of extension
Desired Start Date: August 1, 2025
Closing Date: May 20, 2025

Job Overview:

The Middle School Writing Teacher is responsible for teaching writing to students in grades 6–8, focusing on building foundational and advanced writing skills across various genres. This includes guiding students through the writing process, developing their grammar and vocabulary, and encouraging clear, creative, and critical written expression. The teacher works collaboratively with the English/Language Arts department to promote literacy and academic growth.

Responsible to: Middle School Principal

Main Duties:

- Plan and implement engaging writing lessons aligned with the school's curriculum and educational standards.
- Teach students the writing process: brainstorming, drafting, revising, editing, and publishing.
- Guide students in grammar, vocabulary development, and sentence structure.
- Introduce various writing genres (narrative, descriptive, expository, persuasive, etc.).
- Integrate reading and writing skills to enhance comprehension and literary analysis.
- Differentiate instruction to meet the diverse needs of learners, including ELL and students with special needs.
- Provide timely and constructive feedback on student writing assignments.
- Assess student progress and maintain accurate records of grades and performance.
- Collaborate with colleagues to support interdisciplinary projects and school-wide literacy goals.
- Communicate effectively with students, parents, and administrators.
- Maintain a positive and orderly classroom environment conducive to learning.
- Participate in professional development and school community events.
- To be a Christian example of courtesy and to provide a welcoming environment to everyone.

Qualifications:

- Seventh-day Adventist church member in good standing.
- Bachelor's degree in Education, English, or a related field.
- Teaching certification or equivalent qualification.
- Experience in teaching writing at the middle school level is preferred.
- Experience in academic support or intervention programs is an advantage.
- Strong classroom management and student engagement skills.
